

Mollie Aronowitz, AFM Presented Early Career Award by Iowa Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers

Published on Feb 24, 2022 by Peoples Company

ANKENY, Iowa (AgPR) Feb. 17, 2022 — The Iowa Chapter of the American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers has presented its 2022 Early Career Award to Mollie Aronowitz, AFM.

Aronowitz was presented the award at the February annual meeting of the Iowa Chapter of ASFMRA. This award recognizes an outstanding early career member of the Iowa Chapter for his/her contributions to the Chapter, ASFMRA, and the profession.

Aronowitz is a Land Manager and Director of Sustainability with Peoples Company. She received the Accredited Farm Manager (AFM) designation from ASFMRA in 2018. She has served on both Iowa Chapter and national ASFMRA committees since joining the organization in 2016. Aronowitz just finished a three-year term as a director on the ASFMRA Iowa Chapter Foundation Board of Directors.

Kyle Walker, ASFMRA board member and Director of Asset Management at Peoples Company said, "Mollie Aronowitz is a shining example of what the profession should be. Her client dedication, work ethic and focus on sustainable agriculture exemplify how farms should be managed. It's been exciting to see her professional growth and involvement with the ASFMRA over the years, I expect big things from her in the future."

Professional Help from ASFMRA Members

Members of the Iowa Chapter of the American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers (ASFMRA) work with close to 2 million acres across Iowa. Our Farm Manager members are experts in helping landowners and farm operators achieve their objectives while our Appraiser members are equipped with the tools necessary to tackle a wide spectrum of real estate valuation assignments. ASFMRA members are recognized as the most trusted rural property professionals and their accreditation represents the highest level of professionalism in the industry.

You can connect with an ASFMRA member in your area by visiting <https://www.asfmra.org/directory/find-experts2>.